although many scholars have studied paul s theology they have not provided satisfactory interpretation this is because his genuine epistles were studied as they have been left in the new testament rather from a redactional point of view paul the founder of christianity approaches paul s seven epistles romans 1 corinthians 2 corinthians galatians philippians 1 thessalonians and philemon the book reconstructs his life and uncovers the compilation of sixteen short letters into seven epistles accordingly these can be divided according to the chronological order of composition when the transformation of paul s theology is traced one can see a progressive development of christology the death of jesus christ redemption and salvation the law the end of world the spirit of god and the church of god as a result it can be argued that after the antioch incident paul had conflict with the apostles of jerusalem and founded christianity for gentiles an argument that is presented in detail based on the evidence found in paul s sixteen letters new testament scholar gerd lüdemann continues his exploration of the life and teachings of paul in this groundbreaking monograph which synthesizes the research of his four previous books on christianity s leading apostle as the subtitle of the present work makes clear lüdemann comes to the conclusion that paul should be considered not only christianity s most influential proselytizer but in truth deserves the title of founder of the religion that ostensibly originated with jesus of nazareth though other scholars have previously made the point that paul s interpretation of the christian message actually obscured the original teachings of jesus lüdemann goes further his painstaking historical research shows that paul created the major tenets of the christianity we know today and that his theology an original synthesis of hebrew and greek belief systems differs significantly from what we now know the historical jesus to have preached after one thousand three hundred and fifteen days of silence it feels as if i am coming to you from a totally different world in fact it is so the world of words language concepts and the world of silence are so diametrically opposite to each other they don t meet anywhere they can t meet by their very nature silence means a state of wordlessness and to speak now it is as if to learn language again from abc but this is not a new experience for me it has happened before too a radical reassessment of the role of mary the mother of jesus and other women in the early church despite the commonly held assumption that the bible says little about the mother of jesus there are many indications that mary preceded and inspired her son in fostering the emergence of a new faith community in the gospel of john mary instigates jesus first miracle and in all four gospels she is present at the crucifixion suggesting hers was a place of unparalleled importance in the christian story setting aside presuppositions based on doctrine chris maunder returns to the new testament to answer the question who was mary he re examines the virgin conception of jesus mary s contribution to jesus ministry and her central role in the events of the crucifixion and the resurrection in so doing mauder casts a thought provoking new light on mary and the women including mary magdalene who stood alongside her
