the authors in this compilation address the issue of legalism from a variety of angles john macarthur shows first that obedience to god is not an issue of legalism but an issue of love in his second chapter he deals with the inevitable response of people who are confronted with biblical standards judge not that ye be not judged here macarthur shows what our lord meant when he said that and shows what biblical discernment really is that there is a vast difference between judgmental and holding people accountable to god s standards phil johnson in his first chapter deals with christian liberty in his second chapter he takes a critical look at two kinds of legalism then explores the relationship of christian love and christian liberty joel beeke shows that enthusiasm for god s law is not necessarily legalism one can be zealous without being legalistic as david wrote oh how i love thy law bruce bickel explains that legalism is due to a weak understanding of what christ accomplished on the cross jim elliff makes clear that legalism is an attack on unity within the body of christ particularly local congregations ken talbot helps us to see that legalism is inconsistent with and incompatible with the doctrine of justification by faith alone he points out that the doctrine of free will leads to this dangerous position rick phillips explores the relationship to loving god and obeying his law some today believe that love is all that matters and that the law as a guideline to love is extinct then this author shows that biblical sanctification is the antidote to and the opposite of legalism steven j lawson shows that legalism is the result of holding to man made traditions over the truth of god s word second he points out how dangerous and deadly a thing legalism is and why table of contents 1 introduction what legalism is what legalism does don kistler 2 truth vs tradition stephen j lawson 3 love and god s law richard d philips 4 the cross is enough bruce bickel 5 the danger of legalism steven j lawson 6 obedience love or legalism john macarthur 7 zealous but not legalistic joel beeke 8 the plague of free will moralism kenneth talbot 9 judging vs biblical discernment john macarthur 10 stand fast in liberty phil johnson 11 real love and real liberty phil johnson 12 what freedom from the law accomplishes for the local church jim elliff 13 biblical sanctification the antidote to legalism richard d philips does the bible condone warfare and slavery isn t the new testament s teaching on sex outdated surely there s not a literal heaven and hell these are just some of the questions that popular bible teacher andrew ollerton asks as he helps us navigate the most challenging topics in the bible god s book follows the biblical plotline from genesis to revelation and reveals how to make sense of difficult passages by considering them in their original setting when we understand the creation story in its ancient context we won t need to choose between science or the bible when we appreciate that the conquest of canaan was a unique moment in history these passages won t justify violence today the bible s 7 toughest topics science versus creation slavery and old testament laws warfare and violence suffering miracles and exorcisms sex heaven hell and judgement andrew concludes each chapter with a letter to a young adult giving practical advice on each topic god s book is for anyone who is spiritually curious and wants to make sense of the bible and for christians who want to share their faith more confidently in today s culture the christian s warfare it s a family affair as you read this book you will come to see that victory over the obstacles we face in life is not just about his power or his presence but about your positioning christ has promised us his power just as he has promised us his presence but he leaves it up to us to be properly positioned in certain areas in order that we might gain the victory these areas are living successfully as singles in a sex crazed society husbands loving their wives as christ loved the church wives submitting to and reverencing their husbands children obeying and honoring their parents fathers not provoking their children to anger and discouragement men becoming providers and not pimps in their home francis l davis is the pastor founder of west end bibleway christian fellowship in new iberia louisiana he is a passionate teacher of the word of god whose giftedness is not in how much he knows but in his ability to make plain and simple and exciting god's truths his next book which will soon be available is entitled the misbehaving church this book acquaints the saints with proper positioning strategies by providing us with a means to inspect what we expect based on god's expectations for each of us it addresses a basic premise that behavior follows belief over a protracted period of time reformation can never truly change behavior transformation of one's belief system is required to behave differently misbehavior is a reflection of misbelieving many in the kingdom will be blessed through this work thank you pastor davis for obeying the spirit sterling lands ii dd sr pastor greater calvary bible church austin texas sr pastor first african bible church dallas texas public speaking is one of the most important task and challenging to the human beings it is imperative for all the committed christians to lean learn and live with the biblical truths as such the knowledge and application of scripture is an utmost necessity to be grounded upon the word of god the necessity of scripture means that the bible is necessary for knowing the gospel for maintaining spiritual and moral life and for knowing god's will but is not necessary for knowing that god exists or for knowing something about god's character and moral law basis of preaching biblical message preach the word is for the glory of god the building up of the church and society and the spreading of the gospel to the ends of the earth that is to all the creation biblical preaching is centered around and takes its content from the inerrant word of god true biblical preaching aims at life change biblical preaching also comes through the personality of the preacher some communicators or preachers are encouragers some are confrontational some are humour while others use sound logic and well reasoned content it is not good to fall into the trap of trying to mimic your favourite preacher instead learn from them and develop your own style as a good communicator rev dr koningthung ngoru moyon presents biblical preaching in his book basis of preaching biblical message preach the word is both an art and a science it is a science in the sense that there are rules and principles of communication that we are to follow it is an art in that each person brings his own unique personality and style to the preaching experience preaching is truth through personality both are necessary however the very important and foremost focus in the book is that biblical preaching is empowered by the work of the holy spirit is focus in the book the christian ministry can be so complicated that no pastor is totally prepared for what is about to hit them there are situations that arise one never anticipates pastor keller believes he has faced them all and he shares them in his book on hidden enemies in the ministry keller has had to lock horns over legalism face a charismatic invasion that split his church be fired for doing what he said he would do when he was hired deal with witchcraft and the occult within his own congregation have an outside pastor try to steal his ministry ignorantly allow liberalism to get a foot in the door be accused of immoral behavior and worst of all try to minister when his wife was dying of cancer keller tells how he dealt with all these situations and does so with other pastors in mind as his desire is to share his lifetime experiences so others do not fall into the same traps keller is also concerned about the the silent pulpit and the fear of pastors to preach the whole council of god and that includes the moral political issues that are destroying our nation issues like abortion critical race theory the social justice movement too many pastors are too politically correct in their preaching that their compassion for their flock is more important than telling the truth it has been said of those who have read this book that it ought to be required reading in the practicum department of every bible college in america experience gives one far more wisdom for ministry than what is learned in seminary it is my hope and prayer that hidden enemies in the ministry will better equip you to be a more successful servant of christ in fulfilling his calling on your life in this composition the origin of more than forty essential christian beliefs are explained in order to provide answers for all christians to such questions as where did god come from no longer will any christian who has read this book need to avoid questions like who made sin is the devil real are heaven and hell real did jesus really live and should a christian tithe the author s will is to help the christian to know to better understand to teach and to defend christian beliefs beginning in the old testament book of genesis some essential christian beliefs are presented on subjects such as the family anti god sex drug abuse grace sin and marriage from the new testament the writer presents the issues and christian beliefs on jesus christ disciples origin of the church origin of the pope catholic protestant and baptist in the christian beliefs of the baptist the teaching of jesus christ as the norm the founder savior and spiritual head are exalted with supporting evidence from jesus s own words the last part of the book presents jesus s teaching on hell heaven the steps of salvation and tithing
